

CONCLUSION

No matter it's depth, the law on children's' rights utmost is a "beauty without brains". Mobile courts will serve as the brains behind the beauty of the law in providing a child responsive system.